

Camper Rules & Regulations:

These rules are given as guidelines for every camper to follow. As a registered applicant, you have pledged yourself to abide by this code during the week you are here for your protection and the benefit of all.

1. Every camper and worker must have a CLEAN SCALP EXAM upon arrival at camp. Those identified with signs of head lice cannot be admitted to camp.
2. The daily schedule must be observed by all and attendance at camp activities is required. Evening curfews are strictly enforced.
3. No one is to leave the campgrounds without specific permission from the camp director.
4. All vehicles will be parked in the central parking lots and remain so until checkout Friday. Keys must be turned in upon request. Campers are prohibited from driving on the campgrounds.
5. Each camper will perform his or her duties as part of the privilege of being in camp. Dorms and grounds must be kept clean.
6. Campers are expected to observe habits of personal and group courtesy, cleanliness, and Christian conduct.
7. The deep woods and lake are off limits (unless you are assigned an activity for it).
8. All staff are authorized to maintain order upon all the grounds.
9. Special Government/Camp Statement: No fireworks, tobacco, drinking of alcoholic beverages, drugs, firearms or profanity are allowed on the campgrounds.
10. No CD or MP3 players, radios, handheld video games, firearms, or knives. No searches will be performed for lost or stolen electronic equipment. This includes your cell phone!
11. When you go swimming, modest swimwear is expected. No two piece swim suits allowed. Proper clothing is to be worn over suit to and from the pool. Girls: one piece suits only. Guys: No Speedos. You will be asked to change if proper attire is not worn.
12. Campers are permitted to use cell phones with leader knowledge.
13. We reserve the right to inspect contents of all personal belongings. The holding and/or disposal of improper contents is the right of camp staff.
14. All camper medications should be registered with First Aid immediately upon arrival. They will be administered under the care of the camp staff. All medications must be in the original prescription bottle.
15. Guys and girls are not allowed in each other's dorms.
16. All items left at the camp are to be claimed within 2 weeks.
17. Fire extinguishers are off limits to campers except in the event of an actual fire. It is ILLEGAL to tamper with fire extinguishers.

NOTE: A lack of cooperation, unnecessary roughness, lack of respect for property, or the unwholesome attitude on the part of any camper may result in expulsion from camp. Parents or Guardians are asked to help in explaining these rules to their children and encourage their compliance while at camp. Expense of transporting expelled campers home from camp is the responsibility of the parents. Students and their parents will be held fully responsible for any damage caused to the Timber Lake Center. NO REFUNDS WILL BE ISSUED.

Be kind, clean, and considerate of everyone. Show respect to ALL members of the leadership team and ALL adults.

Emergency Number ONLY:

Parents may call 478.737.9740 (DYD Quarters)

Camp Day Registration:

Upon arrival campers will be assigned a place in the dorm. After placing things in the dorm, campers will return to the gym or another designated area for group activities. Lunch will be served at Noon and the teams will be assigned at 1:00 p.m.

Non-Camper Policy:

All camp activities are open only to registered campers and staff. The Wednesday evening service will not be open to non-campers unless otherwise stated by the DYD.

Insurance: In case of medical treatment and/or expense, your personal medical coverage will be the primary carrier. Parents, make sure insurance information is complete on camper's application. Any Georgia District Council Insurance will be SECONDARY to your personal coverage. The coverage begins Monday at noon and concludes at noon on Friday. Maximum payment is $250.00 for each accident or non-preexisting illness. Pre-registered campers are covered while traveling to and from camp.
